

English Newsletter – Vol.1 Issue.1

It has been a busy summer at Kodaikanal with the tourists thronging the hill station to escape the heat. The members of India Nirman Sangh have been busy, too. They decided to take a break from the routine and get involved in some social activities.

The kolam judged to receive the first prize at Ganeshapuram

On March 8, the women from different self-help groups across 12 villages celebrated International Women's Day in their respective villages. Various competitions such as kolam drawing, lemon and spoon race, fill the bottle race and tug of war were held to display the latent talents of the womenfolk. Winners of these competitions received prizes from the officers of NABFINS.

Participants engage in tug of war

Prizes were distributed by the officers of NABFINS at Samakadu

The members of India Nirman Sangh understand the importance of maintaining cleanliness in and around our surroundings. In a bid to clean the environment, few female volunteers visited the Government Hospital, Kodaikanal in April to remove debris and clear the undergrowth from the premises.

A female volunteer removes the garbage from the Government Hospital in Kodaikanal